

I presume
the messengers have written to you about the political trial of Webb's son, but I am going to open it to put this in. I want to say that you will be very much wiser to go on with your essay having no reference to the Prof. at all. Perhaps he thinks you will do better thereon on your own resources. I think it strange he should not take an interest in your essay, but you can't afford to put off much longer. Your skirt is done and gone to be done up. I read really too busy to get feel sure of getting it done in time, so had Aunt Jennie get it made in O. and sent directions to have it done up before it goes to you. You will get it same time this week, I do not think there is any probability of Mr. Longe leaving at present. I believe they think him an extra teacher and he and his present hosts are on

I hear. However I will try and find out. I still think the proper thing for Rhoda is a place as governess.
Wonder if R. has ever tried using ginger pretty freely at those times. I think it would
